Fourteen men were drowned yesterday near Jackson, Ala., by the capsizing of a ferry boat while crossing the Tombigbee river——Sir Thomas Lipton still thinks a yacht race can be arranged for the American cup next year——Cyrus Baldwin, a wealthy citizen of Elgin, Ill., committed suicide yesterday after killing his wife in a quarrel——The revolutionary movement in Cuba is on the part of the negroes and some of the conspirators have been arrested——At Norfolk yesterday the American Ponological Society, at its concluding session, elected L. A. Goodman, of Kansas City, president, and John Craig, of Ithica, N. Y., secretary——The American Peanut Growers' Congress met in Norfolk yesterday for a two days' session, with delegates present from all the peanut producing States——James I. Beckham, of Norfolk, Va., who killed his brother-in-law at New London, Conn., was yesterday given a life sentence——President Roosevelt yesterday announced that he would approve the constitution of the new State of Oklahoma, yet his "opinion of it wasn't fit for publication"——At the meeting of the American Bankers' Association yesterday the credit currency plan before Congress was endorsed after strong opposition by Banker Frame, of Michigan, who declared that it was a return to fiatism and that over-speculation was the real cause of money shortage in the United States——In the Government case against the Standard Oil Company at New York yesterday, it was developed that the Indiana Pipe Line Company, a subsidiary company of the Standard Oil Company, in 1903 made a profit of $4,091,022 on an investment of only $2,228,759, and that it made its transportation rates so high that only the oil of the Standard was handled——New York markets: Money on call firmer 2 1-2 to 4 per cent., ruling rate 3, closing bid 2, offered at 2 3-4; spot cotton 10 points lower, closing steady at 11.80; flour firm with moderate demand; wheat firm, No. 2 red 1.06 1-4 elevator; corn firm, No. 2, 60 nominal elevator; oats steady, mixed 53 1-2; turpentine quiet; rosin steady.

The Jacksonville Times-Union remarks: "A pretty girl may have a million airs, and yet not be rich." However, they are all airesses all right.

A writer says: "Every woman should try to look like herself." You can't get 'em to try it. If they did, primping would go out of commission.

Oklahoma's 40,000 Democratic majority is an emphatic response to Secretary Taft that the people out there can take care of themselves without any foreign advice.

"Broke out for their health" is the heading of a dispatch mentioning the escape of two prisoners from a North Carolina jail. Unfortunately the sanitary condition of many jails fully justifies jail-breaking.

"Who would make the worst President?" is a question now going the rounds of the press. We don't want to give him away, but anyhow George B. Cortelyou isn't going to have any chance to make the worst one.

Keep your skirts clear and feel like a man. Turn graft down and give it the horse laugh. Good conscience, self-respect, and manhood are worth more than all your ill-gotten dollars. You, more than all the gold of Golconda.

A woman is only too glad to exchange an old hat for a new one but it is a melancholy sight to see a man clinging to his faded old straw hat with an affection that is chilled only by the first frost of the dreary Winter-time.

The Standard Oil Company is a convict and a outcast for accepting rebates. It should be remembered that it is against the laws to offer or accept rebates. P. S.—The law does not apply to a woman who gets a rebate of one cent on a dollar article, thus getting a genuine bargain at 99 cents.

Says the Richmond Times-Dispatch: "It is always to be deplored that this country failed to take advantage of Maxim Gorky's visit among us to arrange an alliance between him and our own Emma Goldman." Too late, now. Max has done and gone and married his "affinity" that he brought over here with him and tried to palm off on a suspecting public as his wife.

It is said that the best glass-eyes are sold for $100, but we see that some specialist is offering a good quality of glass-eye for $50. We should say that any old glass-eye worth 30 cents is good enough for the man who lets the Republican party pull the wool over his eyes with the argument that the protective tariff is for the benefit of labor and not for the preditory monopolists.

HOMICIDE IN COUNTY

Banks Rothwell Called Out of His House and Was Cruelly Murdered.

NEGRO SHOT BY WHITES

Bloodhounds Placed on Trail and Authorities are Working on a Clue. Coroner Summons Jury to Investigate the Killing.

W. Banks Rothwell, a well-to-do colored man, fifty-five or sixty years of age, a tenant on Mr. Owen Martindale's place, five miles below the city on the Carolina Beach road, was called from his home yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, just before daybreak, by three unknown white men and was shot to death by one of the number as he broke loose from two of them who took hold of him and was running from the night-time raiders. Rothwell, who was in his bare feet circled when he was shot, ran back in his house and dropped dead on the floor by his wife, who had witnessed the shooting but is unable to identify the men. The dead man did not speak after he was shot and the identity of the murderer or murderers is unknown.

Soon after the shooting Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner; Constable W. B. Savage and County Home Superintendent J. R. Hardee, the two last named having custody of the county bloodhounds, went down to the scene of the shooting and the dogs were placed on the easy trail of the party of assassins. The animals ran exceedingly well and the tracks were followed to the head of Spring Branch, on the Hewitt place, about a mile from the city, where one of the party seems to have gotten in a cart and returned to the city while the others went in the direction of Delgado. There the trail was abandoned for the present and the officers returned to the city to make investigation in the city. Yesterday afternoon the dogs were taken out and put on the trail again but they did not run so well. It is believed, though, that a clue has been obtained by which the officers will make some arrests following the inquiry by the jury summoned already by the coroner to begin an inquest in the city this morning at 10 o'clock.

According to the wife of Rothwell, she was up this morning about 4 o'clock and heard some one call to her husband from the outside. Rothwell asked who it was wanted him and a voice from the yard replied "Martindale," this evidently having been to fool the colored man out as he lived on Mr. Martindale's place. Rothwell did not believe that the voice was that of Mr. Martindale and called out again to know who was without. The second reply was "Cook" and the colored man was bidden to come out for a moment or two. He half dressed and went out. His wife was standing at a window at the time and she said that after a few words two of the men took hold of her husband, he wrestled loose and ran away. As he did so one of the number fired two shots, only one of which, however, took effect. The ball, which was from a 32-calibre pistol, entered his right side at the back at the lower edge of the shoulder blade, piercing the lower end of the right lung, causing profuse hemorrhages, from which Dr. Bell says he must have died almost instantly. He ran back in the house, however, and dropped dead at the feet of his wife, who lived alone with him except a few small children, other sons and daughters of the couple being grown. The woman says that the men were all white and that one of the three seemed to be a boy. Their tracks were found in the yard very plainly and due note of the characteristics of the steps were noted by the officers. Rothwell works turpentine on lands in the vicinity and his people can account for his murder in no way. The motive for the crime has not yet come to light, but the officers are working very hard on the case and are following a clue as stated.

Dr. Bell at once summoned a jury yesterday composed of Messrs. Thompson, E. D. Sloan, W. B. Savage, Owen Martindale, J. R. Hardee and Mr. W. H. Biddle. The jury will meet in this city at 10 o'clock this morning and inquire as fully as possible into the case. The body was viewed yesterday and turned over to the family for burial.

It has been a long time since New Hanover has had a more cold-blooded murder and it is hoped that every effort will be made to run down the guilty parties.

BIG BENEFIT PRODUCTION

"Damon and Pythias" Presented Under Capable Direction of Mr. D'Oize for Benefit of K. of P. Lodges—Many Visitors.

"Damon and Pythias," as presented last night under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Edouard D'Oize and under the auspices of the four Wilmington K. of P. lodges as a benefit for the order in this city, was pronounced a great success by all who were so fortunate as to be in attendance. The audience was large and consisted not only of Wilmington people, but a large delegation of Pythians who came from the other lodges in the Wilmington district, these having been from Lumberton, Clarkton, Council's, Chadbourn, Elizabethtown, Burgaw, Warsaw, Wallace and other points.

The production was put on with all the necessary scenic investiture and costuming and staging guaranteed historically correct. The costumes were from Van Horn & Son, of Philadelphia, and F. Szwrisebina, of Cincinnati. The cast led by Mr. and Mrs. D'Oize as Damon and Calanthe, respectively, with Mr. Edward Clark, of Columbia, S. C., in the role of Pythias, was especially strong and the lines were faithfully and energetically interpreted. Mr. Paul B. Bell was seen to advantage as Dionysius; Mr. Wm. F. Michaux, as Philistius; Mr. Oscar H. Cranz, as Damocles; Mr. John Maxwell, as Procles; Mr. John W. Brown, as Lucullus; Elliott Newell, as Herald; L. J. Glasgow, as Headsman; little Elma Costin, as Damon's child, while Miss Calena Newell was charming in her conception and execution of the part of Hermion.

Of the minor parts there were in the role of Senators Messrs. W. L. Williford, W. P. McGlaughon, F. L. Huggins, C. McD. Jones, W. E. Huggins, W. S. Clayton, J. G. Smith, W. E. Smith, W. B. Thomas, J. R. Hanby, W. E Adams and T. E. Davis and in the parts of soldiers, Messrs. J. A. Price, Kelly Smith, Frank King, J. S. Canady, Harry Gardner, George Keen, Allie Motte, James Orrell and Thos. Willetts.

The committee in charge of the benefit from the four lodges in Wilmington was composed as follows: Paul B. Bell, chairman; E. Schulken, secretary; Messrs. H. L. Vollers, John Haar, W. H. Yopp, Wm. F. Robertson, R. E. Blake, John F. Littleton, Walker Taylor, J. D. Nutt, A. S. Holden and W. P. McLaughon. They arranged everything in excellent shape and the production is a credit to them as well as to those behind the footlights for nothing was spared to make the production the magnificent success that it was.

THE WATER WORKS DEAL.

Committee to Call on Company Officials Tomorrow Probably.

Members of the special committee from the Board of Aldermen recently authorized to offer the Clarendon Water Works Company $140,000 for its plant in this city, stated yesterday that the committee would probably call on the officials of the company Saturday and ascertain if they are ready to accept or reject the proposition submitted to them. If they are not ready to pass upon the matter, they will probably be asked to designate some day during the coming week when the committee can get a definite reply. This further extension of time, so to speak, is because of the fact that the Board of Aldermen will not meet next Monday night, but the following Monday night, as was not taken into consideration at first members thinking that the coming Monday night would be the time for the session.

There has been as yet no intimation to outsiders as to what the company will probably do and the answer to the committee will be awaited with interest.

MARRIED AT PEMBROKE.

Mr. E. M. Paul, Prominent Merchant, Claims Miss Thaggard as Bride.

Rev. J. A. Smith, of this city, returned home yesterday morning from Pembroke, N. C., where on Wednesday evening at the Hotel Thaggard he officiated at the wedding of Mr. E. M. Paul, a leading merchant of that town, and Miss Rida Thaggard, an attractive young woman of the same place. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends, who extended happiest congratulations at an informal reception which followed in the parlors of the hotel after the marriage. The bride and groom left on the Coast Line train for the Jamestown Exposition, where they will spend their honeymoon. Returning, they will be at home at Pembroke, where both are very popular.

GOES TO JURY TO-DAY

All Testimony in Snipes Case Was in Before Night in Superior Court.

EVIDENCE FOR DEFENCE

Argument Opened By F. W. Bonitz, Esq., For the State—Terms Will Close With Jail Cases Still on Trial—Grand Jury.

The questions at issue between the State and Lonnie Snipes, charged with the killing of W. L. Williams in a house of ill fame in this city last September, will reach the jury this afternoon in the Superior Court. Another entire day was consumed with the trial yesterday and at 5 o'clock when a recess for the day was taken, the argument had begun to the jury with a remarkably fine presentation of the facts and the law in the case by Fred W. Bonitz, Esq., who is appearing with the Solicitor for the State. This followed an entire day of testimony for the defence the State having practically concluded its testimony the day before.

This view of the length of time that would probably be required for the completion of the case was taken by Judge Biggs just before a recess for the day yesterday and he announced from the bench that as the term would close by limitation Saturday evening, there would be no other cases tried by jury except those in which the defendants are in jail or desire to enter submissions. All witnesses and defendants out on bond were dismissed for the term unless any of the defendants desired to enter submissions. Besides the Snipes case, only one other entry appeared on the clerk's docket yesterday. This was in the case of Dave Freeman, charged with larceny, in which there was a nol pros with leave.

Upon the convening of court yesterday morning Judge Biggs ruled out as incompetent a bit of evidence which the State desired to get in for the prosecution in the case of Snipes, this being a statement by Maude Pinner that as soon as the pistol shots rang out in the dance hall where Williams was killed, Violet McDonald ran into her room and cried out "My God, Lonnie has killed a man out here!" It was held that this was not a part of the res gestae and that it could be only admitted when the statement was made in the presence of the defendant.

The State rested its case here and the defence began with its testimony. The first witnesses were Messrs. S. G. Hall, L. A. Billbro and Frank Standland, by whom it was shown that immediately after the killing they ran out of their homes in the vicinity and Croom told them that he had shot Snipes down because he had shot at at him. This Croom had denied having said on his examination for the State. It was also sought to prove the same thing by Sergeant B. R. King and Hall Officer E. L. Smith, with whom Croom had talked the day following the shooting. Only one ball was fired out of Snipes' pistol and if he had fired on Croom in the street, it would be clear that he could not have fired the fatal bullet in the house..

The next witnesses were Col. A. M. Waddell, former Mayor; the present Mayor, Hon. Wm. E. Springer; City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler, Chief of Police N. J. Williams, Col. Walker Taylor, Mr. W. A. McGowan and others by whom it was proved that Croom's character was bad. They were subjected to a rigid cross-examination by the Solicitor and secured admissions from nearly all of them that the characters of Policemen M. A. Jones, C. S. Burnett and other State's witnesses were good, their testimony being largely corroborative of that of Croom.

Policemen M. A. Jones and C. H. Tatum, who were on duty in the red light district on the night of the killing, testified that Snipes had admitted the killing to them and that he had begged Croom to shoot him, the prisoner, and put him out of all his trouble. They also testified to having found Snipes' pistol where he had thrown it away and to other facts in connection with the tragedy.

Dr. E. P. Gray, of the hospital staff, who was the first to reach the wounded men, Snipes himself having been shot, testified not only to the wounds received by the two men, but the relative position of Williams' body when he was first picked up, this being in an effort to show that the bullet could not have been fired in the manner testified to by Croom.

J. J. Watters, of Pender county, who had accompanied Snipes the afternoon previous to Castle Haynes to attend a speaking, and went with him to the house testified as to his view of the tragedy. The young men in the room were called down two or three times by a woman for raising a disturbance in the room and he had gone out and was standing at a curtained door. He testified that there was a scuffle in the room and the crowd was surging to and fro. This substantiated the story of Snipes, who was later introduced.

Snipes told pretty much the same story as he did at the former trial. He said that he was set upon by three or four of the young men, who said, "Come on, let's kill him." One of the number said, "No, he seems to be a pretty good fellow, let's don't kill him." He said that Tom Croom said he would like to kill him.. Presently they all grabbed beer bottles and began to strike him, one of the bottles struck him in the stomach, he thought at the time, but it later turned out that he had been shot. He maintained that he had been shot in the house and not in the street as he ran ahead of Croom, who arrested him. He said that he was knocked unconscious and doesn't remember having shot, if he shot at all. When he came to Williams was lying beside him, both their feet to the door.

The witness betrayed much nervousness on the stand and constantly pulled his chin. He was very positive, however, and his story was little shaken on cross-examination, though the State claimed several inconsistences.

Several witnesses as to the good character of Snipes previous to this occurrence were introduced toward the latter part of the day and the defence rested. Mr. Bonitz then began his address to the jury, which was for about an hour in length and was remarkably clear and forcible. He gives great promise of becoming one of the best advocates at the bar.

When court convenes this morning the argument for the defence will begin. The attorneys are Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, Herbert McClammy and Gafford & Gafford. Mr. Walter P. Gafford will probably open this, followed by Mr. McClammy and Mr. Marsden Bellamy, senior. The State's argument will be closed by Solicitor Duffy.

The grand jury will probably complete its labors today. A committee yesterday visited the county convict camp and other county institutions. It has been very diligently at work. The appearance of a number of young men as witnesses for the grand jury yesterday morning led to a report that the sale of liquor to minors at Wrightsville Beach during the past Summer was to be investigated. It is stated, however, that after the witnesses were brought to the Court House, they were told to go with the information that they would be sent for if needed again. There was also a rumor that there was to be an investigation of the existence of houses of ill repute in the city, but the time is now so short that it is hardly probable that any extended inquiry will be inaugurated. The grand jury may complete its labors and adjourn today.

A DRIVING ASSOCIATION

Prominent Horsemen Met Last Night and Effected Temporary Organization—Another Meeting Next Thursday Night.

A number of enthusiastic horsemen of the city met last night at the Court House and perfected a temporary organization of the Wilmington Driving Association which has been in embryo for some time. The meeting was very enthusiastic and the plans were very generally discussed. A temporary organization was perfected with Mr. John A. Arringdale, mayor of Wrightsville Beach, as president, and Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., as secretary and treasurer. Committees were then named on membership and on constitution and by-laws, these having learned the general ideas of the promoters of the Association as developed at the meeting.

It was decided to hold another meeting of the Association on Thursday night, October 3rd, at which time the permanent officers will be elected and the committees named last night will report. At this meeting all persons interested in the movement are requested to be present and participate in the deliberations. The permanent organization will be perfected and steps will be taken to improve the old Fair Grounds track, to erect a grandstand, etc., on the grounds and to launch the sport in Wilmington full-fledged.

The meeting next Thursday night will follow a racing matinee to be given on the grounds the same afternoon. As a result of the meeting last night the Association feels warranted in proceeding with certain improvements to the course and grounds as will be seen to advantage at the meet Thursday afternoon.

The Driving Association will include in its membership a number of the most prominent men in the city and considerable expense will be gone to in fixing up the grounds and providing the general public with some turf events that are worth while during the Fall and Winter. It is hoped there will be general interest in the meeting next Thursday evening.

SEABOARD FREIGHT WRECK.

Two Cars Hung Over Trestle Near Monroe, N. C.

Monroe, N. C., Sept. 25.—A through freight train from the North last night jumped the track at a point two miles east of Monroe, at a place known as Richardson's Circle. The train had about got across the trestle when the accident occurred. Five cars left the track. Two of them went into the water and the others hung over the side of the trestle. The track was badly torn up and the wreckage cannot be cleared and the track repaired so that trains can pass till Friday. In the meantime trains are being sent around by Chester and Columbia to Hamlet. The cause of the wreck is not exactly known, but it is believed that it was a result of too fast running. No one was hurt.

Young White Man Ed. J. Morgan Attempted Suicide in Raleigh Yesterday Morning.

FINALLY BROUGHT AROUND

Election on Auditorium Bond Issue. Funeral of Mrs. Purnell—Elvira Powell on Trial—Condition of Dr. Moment—Charters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 26.—A little before two o'clock this morning, a young white man, something under 25 years of age, was found lying on the sidewalk in front of the Union passenger station, unconscious and tightly holding a small laudanum bottle. No time was lost in getting him to a hospital where two physicians attended him. At noon today he was pronounced out of danger. The hospital officials said his name was Edward J. Morgan; that he was from Massachusetts and has recently been at Wilmington. In his pocket was a letter from a young woman with whom he was evidently in love, this being postmarked Philadelphia. It was sent to Wilmington and was then forwarded to Raleigh.

This was election day on the issue of $100,000 in bonds for an auditorium of the site of the present City Hall, and for a separate market building. For a great many years the market has been under the City Hall. A strong fight has been made against any issue of bonds, on the ground that the building could not be converted to the desired use. The advocates of the measure intended that if this was not done it would be many a year before Raleigh ever gets an auditorium.

Mrs. Thomas R. Purnell was buried in Oakwood cemetery today, the funeral being held from the church of the Good Shepherd. Among the pallbearers were Revenue Collector Duncan and Postmaster Briggs. All the Federal officials at Raleigh attended the funeral. Mrs. Purnell was ad admirable woman in every way and had for many years been a devoted member of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Several members of her family from Salem attended the funeral.

The temperature went as low as 49 degrees here this morning and in the Western part of the State there was light frost. No damage was done anywhere in the cotton belt, the weather officials stating.

Elvira Powell, a very old colored woman, was placed on trial in the Superior Court here today being charged with murdering the infant of Rosa Johnson, white. Rosa has been in jail since last Spring on the charge of killing the child. She testifies that the negro woman took the child and that she did not know what became of it afterwards. As a matter of fact the child was killed by being thrown against a box in a vacant lot. A young man who fled a day or so later, but who afterwards surrendered, was alleged to be concerned in the crime.

The Byrd Manufacturing Company, of Durham, with $125,000 capital stock, is chartered, to do wood and iron work, B. E. Byrd and others stockholders. The Merchants and Farmers' Bank of Mooresville gets a charter with $125,000 capital, to do a general banking business.

United States Senator Overman came from Salisbury today to visit relatives here.

Before the Governor and the Council of State today there was the matter of allowing at least 50 convicts to the Trans-continental Railway, which S. A. Jones and others desired the State to own, a very ambitious plan for ten millions of stock having been advanced at the last session of the Legislature. This did not meet with approval and then a bill passed allowing the company 50 convicts upon condition that it met requirements to be fixed by the Council of State.

Rev. Dr. Alfred H. Moment, the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, is holding his own, though of course still a very dangerously sick man. Inquiries regarding him come from all over the State and from a number of points in Virginia and South Carolina. He is widely known in his denomination as a writer and preacher.

ROW OVER SCHOOL SITE.

Hearing from Burgaw in This City Before Judge Biggs Next Week.

The Pender Chronicle, of Burgaw, has the following in its issue of this week:

"The papers have been served in injunction proceedings against the school committee and the sheriff. The action is to restrain the committee from buying the site for the school house from Mr. I. W. Herring, and against the sheriff to restrain him from collecting the special tax for the school house.

"The proceedings also go further and seek to have the district abolished on the ground of the action being unconstitutional, on account of the way the special district is laid off.

"The plaintiffs in the case are Geo. W. Collins, W. A. Cannon, A. E. Burton and J. B. Moore.

"The hearing is set before Judge Biggs at Chambers in Wilmington on October 1st."

COMPARATIVELY NEW PRODUCTS FROM CORN.

New uses for corn tends to keep the price up, and it makes no difference how great the supply is the demand can hardly be supplied. The supply this year is said to be short, and with the demand for corn for manufacturing purposes, the prospects are that corn will be corn—in price.

Many people probably are not aware that millions of bushels of corn are now being used for manufacturing starch, glucose, grape sugar and other products, even the stalks and cobs being utilized in some products.

It is announced by the New York Journal of Commerce that it is now more than probable that the long delayed corn products refining works at Summit, Ill., will be commenced. President E. T. Bedford now estimates that the cost of these works will range between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000. The construction of the various buildings, which will number about thirty, all told, will be under the supervision of G. E. Chamberlain, engineer of the Corn Products Refining Manufacuring Company. These works, which it is said well be the largest of their kind in the world, will consume 12,000,000 gallons of water daily. They will turn out all the primary products handled by the Corn Products Manufacturing Refining Company, all the grades of glucose and grape sugar, and will have a cpacity of 40,000 bushels of corn daily.

This project has been delayed, owing to the uncertainty as to whether the company could obtain sufficient water supplies at Summit to operate the different plants. Extensive tests, covering a number of months, have been made by a staff of engineers under the direction of Mr. Chamberlain, drilling wells to find out if the company could be provided with an adequate water supply on the site, and the engineers have submitted a favorable report. These tests, it is said, have been conducted at a cost of a comparatively large sum.

Upwards of 10,000 tons of steel will be used in the construction work, bids for which will be received by the corporation in the course of a month or so. With the completion of the works, which will employ over 1,000 men, the Chicago plant, valued at about $2,500,000, will be dismantled. It is stated that the proceeds from the sale of this property will be used in the building of the proposed $5,000,000 plant.

From statements made in New York this week it would appear the business of the company is very good, although the profits accruing from the same are kept down owing to the higher cost of corn. The company's output covering its various commodities during the past year shows an average increase of 10 to 15 per cent. The receipts since the issuance of the annual report, which covered the operations up to March 1 last, also make a favorable showing. The Pure Food law operated against the company for a while, but now that matters have been adjusted to the new conditions, it is now looked upon with much favor with the officers of the company.

President Bedford, of the Corn Products Company, was in New York on Tuesday and made the following statement:

"The outlook is encouraging from the standpoint of business, the company is doing in its numerous specialties, especially in starch and syrups, the demand for which has so increased that the various works producing them have had to be increased. This is particularly true of our plants at Davenport, Md., and Oswego, N. Y. When our Summit plant is completed our combined grinder capacity will approximate 140,000 bushels of corn daily."

A plant of $5,000,000 is a big concern but it is probable that altogether at least $25,000,000 are now invested in manufacturing different product from corn. Of course, we except the manufacture of North Carolina mountain dew from the list of new products that are now being placed on the market by such concerns as the Corn Products Company.

SENSATION OF THE DAY.

That is quite an interesting and rather sensational rumpus they have stirred up in Raleigh newspaper circles over the press telegram from Washington printed in several papers and reproduced in The Star a day or two ago, purporting to show that with in ten months the Raleigh Evening Times was paid $6,000 for advertising and special notices printed in that paper by the Southern Railway Company. The News and Observer is daily printing its view of the case under red headlines with half-tone cuts of State Senator Jno. C. Drewry, president of the Raleigh Times Company, and Vice President A. B. Andrews, of the Southern, these alternating positions each day with what the rival paper has to say of the case.

Yesterday the controversy hinged upon a question of veracity between Mr. Geo. B. Crater, publisher of The Times for the owning company, and certain persons, including Governor Glenn, Ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock and Col. Chas. E. Johnson, a prominent Raleigh banker, as to certain statements made by Mr. Crater which were construed by the News and Observer to mean that if the money was paid to the Raleigh Evening Times, he knew nothing of it. The Times of Wednesday afternoon prints a blackline personal statement from Mr. Crater, under startling headlines, denying the statements or inferences drawn therefrom with reference to Mr. Drewry and heaping maledictions upon the head of Editor Josephus Daniels for the sensational presentation of the matter to the readers of that paper.

The News and Observer comes back yesterday morning with statements from Col. Johnson as to what actually was said and a corroborative statement from Cashier F. H. Briggs, of the Raleigh Banking and Trust Company, who was in the bank when Mr. Crater came to see Col. Johnson with reference to the interpretation he had placed on a conversation had the morning before as to the paper's having received the checks from the Southern Railway. The News and Observer prints a further telegram from its Washington correspondent, Mr. Thomas J. Pence, with local comment in which it is stated that still further disclosures of vouchers for the Raleigh Times are claimed to be within the knowledge of attorneys for the State, who are making an examination of the books of the Southern in Washington in the railway rate case. These matters, the lawyers say, will be brought or attempted to be brought out at the hearing in Raleigh the coming week. It is hinted that other persons may be involved in the controversy.

Mr. Drewry has gone to Washington and it is expected that he will have "something to say" when he gets back to the "seat of war." Meantime the public has very generously suspended judgment until all the facts are brought out. There are charges that all the controversy has been brought about for political purposes and the controversy is getting quite heated.

The News and Observer of yesterday prints a further telegram from Washington stating that in the examination of the Southern's books in the rate case at Washington, Standing Master Montgomery ruled that the Southern could not be required to produce the records for the years 1898 to 1905 inclusive. The News and Observer says that the railroad is afraid of the ghost of the old Morning Post, the newspaper which suspended in Raleigh some years ago.

U. S. SUPREME COURT UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday observes:

"Judge Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, has raised a question as to the constitutionality of the Supreme Court of the United States. This is so sudden. If the doubt is confirmed how in the world are we ever to find out if the new North Carolina rate law is constitutional? And worse still, how is the question which has been raised in Georgia under the dispensation of reform as to the constitutionality of a part of the constitution ever to be determined?"

Judge Clark will probably attract some more attention to North Carolina. He is raising a point that will "exhaust the judiciary" of all the States and of the United States.

CURRENT COMMENT

Mr. Roosevelt may some day become an editor, but it is safe to say that Mrs. Bellamy Storer will never have charge of his woman's page.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—If the Bahamas can make money off sisal plantations why can't Florida do better? If a kangaroo farm pays well in England where they must keep a hothouse for the kids, what's the matter with Florida? If a 'possum farm pays well in Georgia, why need any man ask for an opening in Florida?—Jacksonville Times-Union.

—The Wilmington Star adds its valuable influence to that of the other papers which have spoken up for Charlotte for the Democratic State convention next year. It is the place. Many of those who will be delegates to that convention have never seen Charlotte. They ought to know it and it would like to meet them. It has an ample and well appointed auditorium and fine and ample hotel accommodations. Moreover, it will have no candidates to present to the convention which will thus be free from the spieling of the pestiferous local barkers whom convention delegates are acquainted with all too well. The city has many daily trains and ingress and egress are easy. Other reasons will in due time be presented to the State executive committee, intended to show it why it should send the convention to Charlotte.—Charlotte Observer.

—An experiment is in process of trial near Charleston, W. Va., which may, if successful, result in something worth while. A town has been laid off for the sole occupation of negroes, and no white person will be permitted to become a citizen. Already many negroes are buying lots, which are sold at reasonable figures, and it is expected there will be several thousand population there within three or four years. The project is expected to have the approval of the legislature, and that full authority will be afforded for making the test exemplary. Segregation of this kind in the vicinity of industrial cities, where ample labor at remunerative wages could be secured, would seem to be one of the incidental solvents of the race issue. Wherever tried, the idea has worked well. It might, after all, be worth a fair trial.—Chattanooga Times.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SPECIAL TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Advance in Rates of Subscription Beginning October 1st.

Beginning October 1, the subscription rates of The Morning Star will be as follows:

By Mail—One year, $6.00; six months, $3.00; three months, $1.50; two months, $1.25; one month, 75 cents.

By Carrier—Delivered in any part of the city, 50 cents per month either by the month or year.

This moderate advance has been deferred until it has become absolutely necessary on account of the largely increased cost involved in the production of newspapers.

For many years the subscription price of The Morning Star has been lower than that of any other paper of its class in the State.

TIRED AND SICK YET MUST WORK

MRS. AUG. LYON

"Man may work from sun to sun but woman's work is never done."

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo and often suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, comes as a blessing. When the spirits are depressed, the head and back aches, there are dragging-down pains, nervousness, sleeplessness, and reluctance to go anywhere, these are only symptoms which unless heeded, are soon followed by the worst forms of Female Complaints.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

keeps the feminine organism ina strong and healthy condition. It cures Inflammation, Ulceration, displacements, and organic troubles. In preparing for child-birth and to carry women safely through the Change of Life it is most efficient.

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes:— Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"For a long time I suffered from female troubles and had all kinds of aches and pains in the lower part of back and sides. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following the advice which you gave me I feel like a new woman and I cannot praise your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Thousands Read the Star Business Locals

Kind Words

(Goldsboro Argus.)

Brother Wm. H. Bernard, founder, owner and editor of the Morning Star, of Wilmington, N. C., announced on Sunday that his paper today enters upon its 41st year, and the Argus is both cordial and sincere in tendering to brother Bernard its congratulations and best wishes.

(Concord Tribune.)

The Wilmington Star is forty years old, or forty years young, for it is one of the liveliest sheets coming to this office. Through all these years, longer than any Evening Tribune man has lived, the Star has been a bright light in the journalistic heavens of the Old North State and is today brighter than since we knew it.

(Wilmington Wilmingtonian.)

Everybody is congratulating the "Morning Star" upon the celebration of its 40th birthday. Last Sunday's Star printed a fine picture of Major Bernard, the veteran editor and founder of the paper, and also an exact reproduction of the first copy of the Star printed away back in 1867, when it was no larger than The Wilmingtonian How it has grown during all these years!

(Durham Sun.)

The Wilmington Star issued a handsome edition Sunday, and it was all the more interesting for it celebrated its fortieth year, under the continuous management of its owner, Maj. W. H. Bernard. We rejoice with our contemporary in its evidences of prosperity. The Star shines today one of the brightest luminaries in the State's journalistic firmament, and its editor is ever true to the principles of sound Democracy. Here's our best wishes for increased usefulness, and a long life to its gallant and courteous editor.

(Salisbury Post.)

The Wilmington Star has just celebrated its fortieth anniversary and we hasten to felicitate Jajor W. H. Bernard, who has been its editor all these years. What the Star is Major Bernard has made it and it is no exaggeration to say that it is a model newspaper. It is clean, it is ably edited and Major Bernard has never lacked the courage of his convictions. He stands for the best thought of the State and the South and with clear eye and steady hand has held the rudder true. May it be the good fortune of his people to have his services for many years that are to be.

(Charlotte Observer.)

The Wilmington Star completed the fortieth year of its existence Sunday and the strange thing is that in all that time it has not changed in ownership or name. It was established September 22nd, 1867, by Maj. Wm. H. Bernard, who is still its owner and editor and who in point of continuous service is the oldest member of the editorial profession in the State. He could tell from memory many interesting stories of newspapers and newspaper men who within these forty years have come and gone and of many another contemporaneous man who, like

"Sultan after Sultan with his pomp
Abode his destin'd Hour, and went his way."

After these two score years Major Bernard is in health and vigor and gives promise yet of years of usefulness. The paper, like the man, is one of principle, and while he lives it will not dishonor its honorable history or betray the people whose respect and confidence it deserves and enjoys..

(Newbern Daily Sun.)

The Sun offers heartiest congratulations to The Morning Star, of Wilmington, on its fortieth anniversary. The Star was forty years old last Sunday, and the paper celebrated the event in becoming style by getting out a handsome anniversary edition. It tells how the paper has literally "grown up with the town" since the war.

Major Bernard, the founder of the paper, is still at the helm, and he is still a member of the "boys' brigade," and one of whom the boys are all very fond. It is a proud record the paper has, of living so long through so many changing vicissitudes, and to pass the fortieth milepost so full of vigor and usefulness.

Not the least interesting feature of this edition is a facsimile reproduction of the first page of the first issue of The Morning Star. Some idea of the progress may be had from the statement that the first issue was printed on a Washington hand press. Think of a daily newspaper being printed by that slow and tedious process! That kind of grit will always win. The Morning Star enjoys the distinction of being the oldest daily in North Carollina, and has never changed ownership or editorial control. Like the proverbial "old wine," it improves with age.

Kidney Trouble. One 50c bottle of Drake's Palmetto has cured me of kidney trouble. W. C. Hatch, East Westmoreland, N. H.

Stomach Trouble. I was a great sufferer, had to get up and walk the floor nights. Doctor said "It was gas on the stomach." I have not felt a particle of pain since taking Drake's Palmetto. I am 68 years of age. Geo. W. Drew, Upper Lake, N. Y.

Gravel of the Bladder. Four different physicians told me I must have an operation. I had gravel of the bladder, but got so weak could not. Had our druggist send for a bottle of Drake's Palmetto. I got immediate relief and three bottles made a well man of me. May God bless you and I hope you may prosper. E. C. Atherton, Durand, Michigan.

—The many friends of Dr. Eugene P. Gray were delighted to see him here yesterday from his home at Winston-Salem where he is now located for the practice of his profession. Dr. Gray was formerly one of the resident physicians at the hospital here and came as a witness in the Superior Court in the Snipes trial.

DIED OF APOPLEXY.

Mr. William G. Hall, Prominent Business Man of Pembroke, N. C.

Rev. J. A. Smith, who returned to the city yesterday, brings news of the sudden death of Mr. William G. Hall, a prominent business man and one of the first mayors of the town of Pembroke, in Robeson county. Mr. Hall suffered a stroke of apoplexy about 3 o'clock and died before help could reach him. He was 69 years of age and had at one time been a revenue collector. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mr. William E. Hall, Mrs. Albert Baldwin, of Elkton; Mrs. Eugenia Cook, Mrs. Theo. Hair and Miss Frances Hall, all of Pembroke. Messrs. James and Oliver Evans, of Fayetteville, are half-brothers of the deceased. The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon from Philadelphus church, in Robeson county, and the interment was in the burying ground there.

Had to Stop to Explain.

This week's issue of the Pender Chronicle has the following: "Mr. A. C. Landis, of Havana, Cuba, and Mr. O. H. Wright, of Wilmington, were very welcome visitors in town last Monday evening. They came up in Mr. Wright's automobile. After being stopped a time or so along the road to advise what their machine was, they made the trip in an hour and a half. Mr. Landis is the popular manager for Swift & Co.'s business in Havana. Mr. Wright is a prominent broker in his city."

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

Five young white boys charged with bathing in the river without trunks or suits on were arraigned in the Mayor's court yesterday. The youngsters had been taking a dip from the Coast Line coal chute and were run in by Officer Wood. They were warned and discharged with a reprimand. John Smith, colored, charged by Officer I. F. Huggins with disorderly conduct at the Champion Compress, was fined $5 and costs.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. B. H. Marshall was yesterday granted a permit to build a seven room, two-story residence to cost $1,500, on Eighth between Orange and Ann streets.

—An officer from Fort Caswell was here yesterday morning with a youthful prisoner, who was arrested at Salisbury for desertion from the army post at Fort Adams.

—The steamer C. W. Lyon arrived in port yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock with a party of about 30 excursionists on board, most of them having come down for the production of "Damon and Pythias" at the Academy of Music last night. The boat left for the return trip at 12 o'clock last night.

—Andrew Jackson, the colored porter of M. F. Croom & Co., charged with the larceny of liquors from the store, waived examination before Justice Furlong yesterday and was bound at once to the higher court under $100 bond, his case being docketed at once as No. 102. It is doubtful if it will be reached for trial at this term unless there is a submission. He is represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq.

—Three steamers arrived in port yesterday, all Britishers. They are Tugela, Captain Logan, from Matanzas, Cuba, for cargo of cotton; the tank steamer August Belmont, or nearly 3,000 tons register, with part cargo for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, vessel to Heide & Co., and the Sierra Blanca, 2,338 tons, from St. Lucia, to Messrs. Sprunt & Son for cotton.

GEORGIA PASSENGER RATE

Atlanta and West Point Railroad Ceases Opposition to State.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 26.—The Atlanta and West Point Railroad Company today withdrew its motion pending before Judge W. D. Ellis of the Superior Court asking for a temporary injunction restraining the State Railroad Commission from enforcing its order reducing passenger rates within the State, and the case of the petitioning road will now take its regular place on the docket, coming up for final adjudications in from twelve to eighteen months.

This, for the time being, takes the fight of the railroad out of the State courts, and is taken to mean that the Atlanta and West Point Railroad will comply with the order of the State Commission reducing passenger rates pending final settlement of the case.

BECKHAM GETS LIFE SENTENCE

Killed His Brother-in-Law in Connecticut—Unwritten Law Plea.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New London, Conn., Sept. 26.—Jas. I. Beckham, of Norfolk, Va., who came here on the evening of September 1, and killed his brother-in-law, William M. Petty, by shooting, in a local hotel, was found guilty of murder in the second degree today and immediately given a life sentence by Judge Rorabback. Beckham claimed that Petty had induced his wife and daughter to come here to live in an immoral way and this was the defense set up.

COLONEL CRAIGHILL DEAD.

Prominent Virginian Passed Away Suddenly at Lynchburg.

WARM WIRELETS.

A general strike of the employes of the United Railroads and the Havana Central Railroad was declared in Havana, Cuba, yesterday. Trains are running with the help of the engineers only, without firemen or conductors. A tie-up of all the railroads on the island is feared..

A dispatch from Statesboro, Ga., says Cone Hagen, a farmer living near there, and eight children are unconscious as the result of eating ice cream in which condensed milk had been used. A physician found all of them unconscious from ptomaine poison. It is feared that none of them will survive. Hagen is a widower.

Eugene Godet, French aeronaut made a successful flight yesterday afternoon in an airship built at the Jamestown Exposition. The test was a perfect success, the ship responding to its rudder promptly and circling Lee parade grounds five times and landing without mishap at the door of the aeronautic building.

William J. Scott, of New York city, who says he is a wealthy mine owner, quarryman and contractor, is under arrest at St. Louis charged with embezzling $5,500 from St. Louisans. The indictment alleges he was engaged to wind up the affairs of a mning company at Tulsa, I. T., for $5,500, of which $500 was his fee. It is alleged Scott kept all the money.

At the final day's session of the Southern Medical Association at Birmingham, Ala., yesterday, Dr. B. L. Wyman, of Birmingham, was elected president. Among the vice presidents are: Dr. J. R. Holden, Florida, and Dr. A. L. Fowler, Georgia. Atlanta was chosen as the next place of meeting.

President Roosevelt announced to a gathering of newspaper men at the White House in Washington yesterday that he assumed that there would be no objection to the appointment of of Wu Ting Fang as Minister from China to the United States. The President added, however, that he had not formally taken up the matter with the State Department.

The United States battleship Alabama arrived at the New York navy yard yesterday, when Captain Conly reported that the cylinder of the ship's port engine was cracked while at sea off Barnstable, Mass., September 13. Since that date the Alabama has been using only her starboard engine. The captain said he knew of no cause for the accident other than that the steel might have crystalized.

OKLAHOMA'S CONSTITUTION.

President Roosevelt Will Approve It Against His Will.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt announced today that he would approve the Oklahoma constitution. He said he had examined the document wth the Attorney General and that he felt that the question of his approval ought not to be based on his personal opinion of the document, but upon whether it came within the terms of the enabling act. His personal opinion of the document, the President laughingly said, was "not fit for publication."

The promulgation of his approval will be made later.

NAVAL OFFICERS' BREAK.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 26.—The Brooklyn Eagle today prints a fac simile of a letter sent from the commandant's office at the New York navy yard to the naval authorities requesting them to write to the Senators and Representatives of the States from which they have been appointed, asking their favorable consideration of the army and navy bill. The letter reads as follows:

"Navy Yard, New York,
Sept. 24, 1907.

"Circular letters to officers:

"It is the wish of Paymaster Cowie that each officer write to the Senators and Representatives from his State asking their favorable consideration of the pay bill. If this is done, and any unfavorable responses are received, Paymaster Cowie would very much like to know the names of those not in favor of the measure.

"By direction of the commandant.
(Signed) "J. G. UPCHURCH,
"Lieutenant and Aide."

Rear Admiral Goodrich is commandant of the New York navy yard. Lieutenant Church, whose name is signed to the letter, was quoted as saying that the Rear Admiral issued the letter at the request of Paymaster Cowie, of Annapolis, and that he did not see how the letter could violate any regulation.

Admiral Goodrich said tonight that the letters had been sent out at his direction, but that as soon as he was informed that the subject matter might be construed as a violation of the President's order of January 1, 1902, the letters were recalled.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SIR LIPTON'S CHALLENGE

There May Yet Be Race for America's Cup.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

London, Sept. 26.—Sir Thomas Lipton was interviewed tonight after he had learned the reasons why his challenge to race for the America's cup had been declined by the New York Yacht Club, and spoke as follows:

"I still have plenty of time to issue another challenge, but all depends upon what I am advised to do. Mr. Fife is coming especially to consult with me on the situation. I know the New York Yacht Club feels its responsibility and I am quite willing to abide by its decision, as the club certainly understands its business better than any one else. I cannot help hoping that the existing difficulty may be overcome and that a race will occur in 1908. I will do everything in my power that is reasonable to meet the wish of our American friends. I am willing to consider most favorably the idea of challenging with a 90-foot boat, if that will be received under the conditions existing in the New York Yacht Club, and if Mr. Fife can design a boat which will give me a reasonable prospect of success, and although such a boat might have to be constructed as a freak boat, even then I would be only too pleased to do so."

New York, Sept. 26.—Prospects for a race for the America's cup next year were improved greatly today by the announcement from Sir Thomas Lipton that he will submit another challenge specifying a 90 foot boat as the representative of the royal Irish yacht club. Members of the New York Yacht Club were reticent as to the action that would be taken by that organization in response to an amended challenge but it was pointed out that the deed of gift, by which the America's cup was placed in the custody of the New York Yacht Club in 1887 apparently makes it obligatory upon the New York Yacht Club to accept the challenge provided certain conditions are complied with. The deed of the gift specifies that any foreign yacht club "shall always be entitled to the right of sailing a match for this (America's) Cup." It is further set forth that the competing yachts, if of one mast, "shall not be less than sixty-five feet nor more than ninety feet on the load water line. It is further set forth that the challenging club shall give ten months notice; that this notice must accompanied by a certificate of the name and everything of the challenging vessel and the vessel's length on load water line, beam at loadwater line, extreme beam and draught of water."

NEGRO COLONY SCHEME

Several Million Dollars to Promote California Project.

(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 26.—A project to establish a large negro colony in Southern California is being promoted by an association which is about to seek State incorporation.

One of the promoters is Lieutenant Colonel Allansworth, of this city, formerly a chaplin in the United States Army. Several million dollars is said to represent the wealth of the negroes back of the movement. Colonel Allansworth said yesterday that a committee of the association will soon visit a 90,000 acre tract in Riverside and Sandego counties, near Muetta, and if satisfied will purchase the land. The colony, he said will not be communistic, the land simply will be offered in small tracts at low prices. The object is to establish a prosperous colony where negroes will have an opportunity to work under favorable conditions. Literature describing the plan will be sent broadcast throughout the South.

BIG FIRE IN NASHVILLE

Grain Warehouse Burned With Loss of $100,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—The warehouse of Byrd, Douglass & Co., grain dealers, was destroyed by fire early tonight. Loss $100,000, fully insured. The electric power plants of the city and of the Nashville Railway and Light Company are nearby and both were for the time put out of business. The city was in darkness and street railway traffic suspended at a time when thousands were seeking to return from the State far where the largest crowd of the week was in attendance.

BRYAN'S WISCONSIN TOUR.

Will Speak in Dozen Places and Outline Political Issues.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

LaCrosse, Wis., Sept. 26.—Chairman R. H. Manson, of Wausau, of the Democratic State committee, has notified local Democrats that the campaign tour of W. J. Bryan in this State will be made in November, and that Mr. Bryan will speak at LaCrosse, Milwaukee, and about ten other points, in which addresses he will outline his plans for the campaign of 1908.

Curious Nesting Habits.

Many birds in their nesting habits have accommodated themselves to the advance of civilization. Thus the barn and cliff swallows, which once built under overhanging cliffs and in caves, now place their nests on the rafters and beneath the eaves of our barns. The chimney swift, which originally placed its nest on the inside of hollow trees, now uses our chimneys for that purpose. The purple martin, once nesting exclusively in holes in trees, will now in many sections of the country use nothing but the bird boxes which kind hearted men have erected.

Two Reasons.

"He must have a new watch or a new wife."

A thousand times listen to the counsel of your friend, but seek it only once.—Hardy.

PRECOCIOUS INDIANA.

Voted For President Before She Was Admitted Into the Union.

Indiana has the unique distinction of having voted for president before it became a member of the family of states. In June, 1816, Indiana adopted a state constitution, but was not admitted to the Union until Dec. 11. In the meantime, on Nov. 4, the first legislature met at Corydon. Indianans have been precocious from the first, and the members of the legislature had no thought of letting a little matter like the fact that what they called the state was not really a state interfere with their voting for James Monroe and Daniel D. Tompkins, for president and vice president respectively As the Indianapolis News, which tells the story, puts it, Indiana politicians wanted to get in on the ground floor

On Nov 11, exactly a month before Indiana was admitted to the Union, the legislature adopted a joint resolution, "That it is expedient to provide at this time for the election of three electors to vote for president and vice president of the United States of America at the ensuing presidential election." This was approved by the governor, and two days later Jesse S. Holman, General Joseph Bartholomew and Thomas H. Blake were chosen electors by the legislature, this being the method in all the states at that time. While these electors were chosen before the state was admitted their vote was not cast until a few days after the admission. Indiana's right to vote was disputed when the national house and senate met to open and count the votes, but the new state finally won the decision.

MACKEREL SKIES.

Theories About How These Cloud Formations Are Caused.

The mackerel sky comes from the same causes as all the cirrus clouds, so called from the beautiful curl their fragments often assume, such as "mackerel skies," "mares' tails" and "cats' tails." Meteorologists are not agreed as to the cause, there being two explanations.

It has been suggested that these cirrus clouds are the heads of columns of vapor rising from the earth and precipitated as soon as they attain a certain elevation, rarely less than three miles above the earth (15,840 feet) and often five or six miles (26,000 to 30,000 feet). If this be so the visible cloud forms the capital of an invisible pillar of saturated air.

The second explanation is that they are caused in the higher regions of the atmosphere by the meeting of two currents of air of different water bearing capacity, causing them to form into parallel bands, each belt being composed of light, airy fragments, slightly altered in appearance according to a slight difference in conditions under which they are formed. It has been supposed that such clouds are composed of particles of snow.

It might be added that they occur in systems, long ranks of them extending in one direction for vast distances and being occasionally crossed by other systems at other but also extreme altitudes.

Elevators and False Teeth.

In department stores where express elevators run to roof garden restaurants some gentle passengers experience daily discomfort because of the sudden movement of the car. The proud owner of a fine set of artificial teeth remarked to her companion a few days ago: "This is the most severe test of proper fit of teeth that I know of. Mine are supposed to be correct in every respect. Still, I never travel in an elevator running express that I'm not in constant fear of my teeth taking a fall. If you close the mouth your breath will be taken away."—New York Press.

Water In Rubber.

Experiments with a hermetically sealed rubber bottle containing water have shown that the rubber is not absolutely water tight. The filled bottle weighed seventeen ounces four drams. At the end of one year the weight was seventeen ounces two drams; nine years, ten ounces; eighteen years, fourteen ounces two drams; twenty-three years, thirteen ounces four drams; twenty-five years, seven ounces eight drams; twenty-eight years, three ounces fourteen drams; thirty years, three ounces twelve drams, the water being entirely gone.

The One She Wanted.

"Excuse me," said the old lady with eyeglasses in the art gallery, "but haven't you got any more figures in marble?"

"These are all, madam," replied the polite attendant. "Is there any particular one you are looking for?"

"Yes; I wanted to see the statue of limitations my husband was telling about."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Laws.

Laws, written if not on stone tablets, yet on the azure of infinitude, in the inner heart of God's creation, certain as life, certain as death! I say the laws are there, and thou shalt not disobey them!—Carlyle.

Dick—Statistics show that more than 5,000 people disappear every year in this country and are never heard from again. Harry—But, confound it, they never happen to be the people we owe money to!

Appearances Against Him.

Brown—Is that Smithers an honest fellow? Black—He may be. But you never see him without an umbrella.—Woman's Home Companion.

For one word a man is often deemed to be wise and for one word he is often deemed to be foolish.—Confucius.

Fair Rosamund's Bower.

Henry III.'s chief garden was at Woodstock, but he was not the originator of it, as there had been a garden there in the time of the second Henry. In it was the labyrinth which concealed the "bower" made famous by the tragic fate of the fair Rosamond. A halo of romance and mystery hangs around this hiding place, but in reality labyrinths were by no means uncommon. There is evidence of the existence of labyrinths in very early times, and they presumably suggested the maze of more modern date. The first labyrinths were winding paths cut in the ground, and the survival of them is still traceable in several places in England. Of these Saffron Walden, with its encircling ditch, is the most striking example. Camden describes one existing in his time in Dorsetshire, which went by the name of Troy town or Julian's bower.—"A History of Gardening In England."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Wilson, Sept. 25: The extensive lumber plant of Aycock Bros, now doing a successful business in Black Creek, will be moved to Wilson, where they will have wider scope. They have purchased a site at the junction of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Norfolk and Southern.

—Governor Glenn, at the request of Sheriff J. R. Patterson, of Halifax and Solicitor John H. Kerr, of the Second District, has offered a reward of $100 each for the arrest of two white men charged with the murder of a negro in Halifax county. The men are N. F. Minshaw and Lamb or L. L. Savage, who are charged with killing Ellis Merritt, colored, August 14th.

—Kinston, N. C., Sept. 25: Late yesterday afternoon news reached the city of the serious and perhaps fatal injury of Mr. William Phillips, son of Mr. Harlowe Phillips, who got his left are caught in Mr. John Sullivan's cotton gin, which is located a few miles north of Hookerton in Greene county. It is feared that the injury may prove fatal. The left arm will have to be amputated and the left eye is seriously and permanently injured.

—Washington, N. C., Sept. 25 The plans and specifications for the new steel bridge to be erected across Pamlico river at this sity are now being drawn. It is not known exactly when the work will commence, as the plans will have to be submitted to the War Department for approval, before the work can start. This bridge will be erected on the site of the old county bridge at the foot of Bridge street and will be built of steel entirely, except the covering, which will be wood. This structure will cost somewhere near $28,000.

—Washington, N. C., Sept. 25: Charles Williams, an old colored man, was the victim of a hold up and robbery about four o'clock Monday morning. It seems that Williams was walking down Harvey street, and when between Second and Third streets a man crossed over from the other side of the street and asked him for a match. While searching for the desired article another man slipped up behind Williams and threw a sack over his head, throwing him down and binding him hand and foot, so he could not free himself. The thieves then went through his clothes and secured six dollars. They then beat a retreat.

—Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 25: Bruce Foster and Ed Farmer, colored, sentenced to the roads for two and four years respectively, broke jail Saturday night by wrenching off the iron bar over the door transom. These men have complained of being very ill, so ill that the Superintendent of Health ordered them to jail for treatment. Of course, being ill, they were not put in the steel cells with the other prisoners, but were placed in a room with iron bars to windows and transoms, purposed for the sick. Efforts were made to trail the fugitives with dogs, but the ground, grass and the undergrowth were so dry that the dogs were unable to do anything. Both men had just recovered from typhoid fever.

—Greensboro, Sept. 25; Mr. W. C. Mitchell, a Guilford farmer, near Gibbonville, is a fine illustration of the new type of farming. Troubled to get labor for the usual crops he put his lands in wheat and oats, planting small crops requiring constant ploughing except four acres he planted in tomatoes, establishing a farm cannery. From these four acres he has already canned 23,000 cans, which he has sold for $1,800, his net profit being $1,000. Mr. Mitchell's cans gave out two weeks ago, and it was impossible to secure more, so ever since he has been feeding his hogs ten or twelve bushels per day and they are fattening on them. He threshed 12,000 bushels of wheat and 800 bushels of oats on this years crop and has fine corn on the small acreage he planted of this crop.

—Newbern, Sept. 25: Last night about 11:30 o'clock a fire was discovered at the Union Point Lumber Company plant on East Front street. The origin is unknown. When discovered the entire building was a light zlaze from one end to the other. Mr. Gibbs, a night watchman, whose duty is to make regular rounds to the several mills, half hour and hourly, had just passed the mill to punch a clock at the guano factory, a distance of only fifty yards from the lumber mill. He punched the clock, turned to come out of the yard and saw the first signs of fire, which burst out from every corner of the plant. The plant consisted of a shingle and lumber mill, also a hoop and barrel factory. From information the losses will amount to about $40,000 with $3,000 insurance.

—Morganton, Sept. 25: Mr. Richard Williams, United States commissioner, prominent citizen and large landowner, was married recently at Morganton to Miss Sallie Hallyburton. Rev. W. O. Goode performed the ceremony. This is Mr. Williams' third venture on the sea of matrimony, and this last marriage causes such a lot of kinship complications that it is hard to determine who is related. Mr. Williams has been living with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ella Williams, who is a sister of Mr. W. F. Hallyburton, father of the young lady he has just married. In addition to being his daughter-in-law Mrs. Ella Williams is now Richard's aunt and her former niece, Miss Hallyburton, is now her mother-in-law. Miss Ada Williams, a young daughter of Mrs. Ella Williams, is now first cousin to her grandmother, and her grandmother is also her first cousin. Mr. W. F. Hallyburton's daughter is now grandmother to his sister's daughter and his daughter is the mother-in-law of his sister's husband.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 26.—The declining tendency of prices of stocks today was more marked than yesterday, although there was little change in the character of the market for its dullness and narrow professionalism. The incidents most harped upon were the poor reception given to the announcement of subscription privileges on New York, New Haven and Hartford stock and the approach of the October 1 settlements in the money market. The low temperatures in the West and news that the head of the Union Pacific system had undergone an operation also were employed by the bears with some effect in their attacks on prices.

Large offerings of grain and cotton bills are appearing in the foreign exchange and it is said by foreign bankers that London shows more favor to American finance bills.

The local money market showed premonitory symptoms of the strain of the October settlements. Estimates of the amount of disbursements to be made here indicate dividend and interest payments of $140,000,000.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,772,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total sales of stocks today were 421,300 shares.

THE COTTON MARKET

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 25.—The cotton market lost most of its advance of yesterday owing to the failure of frost to appear in any locality where damage to cotton was probable, and liquidation by yesterday's buyers. The close was steady at a net decline of 3 to 11 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 275,000 bales. The opening was steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 4 points, and during the first few minutes prices were about 4 to 6 points net higher on the active months owing to higher cables than expected, and continued reports of firmness in the southern spot markets which were said to be selling well above a parity with futures. But the better weather in the belt caused a good deal of selling by recent buyers and the market soon weaknened under this pressure which was increased by a renewal of bearish operations for the account of local professionals and Wall street. Reports from Fall River that spinners were not in the market at the current level, and a barish interpretation of the developments at the spinners convention in Charlotte yesterday, were among the bearish factors. The low level was reached in the late session and the close was only a point or two up from the bottom. Southern spot markets officially reported 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today were 32,495 bales against 23,105 last week and 36,638 last year. For the week 220,000 bales against 151,875 last week and 276,467 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 2,132 against 5,891 last year and at Houston 8,873 against 1,349 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady 10 points lower; middling uplands 11.80; middling gulf 12.05; sales 48 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed steady.

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

Latest Photograph of MISS EVA LEWIS
2572 Hamilton Avenue, Chicago

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Belle of Virginia

BLENDED RYE

When a man goes for a drink of Belle of Virginia Whiskey he hurries because he knows he will have a fine drink, and when he comes away he smiles and smacks his lips because he has had it. Belle of Virginia is a blended whiskey—a rye whiskey carefully and scientifically blended from fine, pure, old whiskies. It's a really good honest article and to those who like a blended whiskey it will give satisfaction clear down to the ground.

HUGE PROFITS OF OIL TRUST

Indiana Pipe Line Company in 1903 Raked in Sum of $4,091,022.

GAIN NEARLY 200 PER CENT

Pipe Line Was Subsidiary of Standard Oil Company, and Made Charges High to Spot Out Independent Oil Companies.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 26.—The Indiana Pipe Line Company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil, made a profit of $4,091,022 in 1903, on a total investment $2,228,758, according to the company's figures produced by George Chesebro, controller of the National Pipe Line Company, who appeared as a witness today in the Federal suit against the oil combine. Mr. Chesebro testified that the Indiana Pipe Line Company was a common carrier and engaged only in the transportation of oil. From balance sheets of the company Frank B. Kellogg, conducting the government's case sought to show that the Indiana company was making excessive profits and that it maintained a high schedule of tariffs to prevent shipments of oil by independent oil producers. Mr. Chesebro testified that the Indiana Company transported practically only the oil of the Standard Company. The counsel for the government allege that it will be shown that the profits made by these pipe line companies have, in some cases been twenty times the actual cost of operation.

Calvin M. Payne, who with F. C. Folger, Jr., owns the Corsicana Refining Company, of Texas, under examination today stated that the tanks and receiving station at the end of the pipe line of the New York Transit Company, also called the National Transit Company, at Unionville, N. J., and at the terminals of the pipe lines of the National Transit Company at Center Bridge, Pa., and Fond Grove, Pa., were built the year the Hepburn law went into effect. Mr. Payne was stating that he supposed there was some legal reason for building these receiving stations on the State lines of New York and New Jersey, and Pennsylvania and New Jersey and Pennsylvania and Maryland, when John G. Milburn, chief of the defendants' counsel, interposed and said he gave the advice. Mr. Milburn, cross-examining the witness, developed the testimony that the pipe lines connecting the terminals at Unionville, Centre Bridge and Fond Grove with tidewater at New York and Baltimore were the private lines of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and were not public carriers. Mr. Calvin said that the National and New York Transit Company were prepared to accept business over the lines and to deliver it at their receiving stations.

THE POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

Officers Elected at Concluding Session Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 26.—The concluding sessions of the American Pomological Society and the Society of Horticultural Science were held at the Jamestown Exposition today, following which the delegates were given a trolley outing to Cape Henry on the Atlantic Ocean front, passing the famous "desert" section of Princess Ann county, Virginia, the home of the scuppernong grape, which is now largely used in the making of Southern wine. L. A. Goodman, of Kansas City, Mo., and John Craig, of Ithaca, N. Y., were re-elected president and secretary, respectively, of the American Pomological Society..

PEANUT GROWERS' CONGRESS.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt said today that he had consented to receive some documentary statements from the striking telegraph operators and that when these are in his hands he would undoubtedly call into consultation Commissioner of Labor Neill. Further than this he said that no arrangement had been made for any conference regarding the strike.

BANKERS ENDORSE CREDIT CURRENCY

Question Brought Up at American Bankers' Association in Atlantic City.

PLAN VIGOROUSLY OPPOSED

Banker Frame of Michigan Contended That It Was Fiat Money—Over-Speculation Causes Money Shortage in United States.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 26.—The report of the currency commission appointed by the American Bankers' Association at St. Louis last year was made today to the convention of the American Bankeds' Association now in session in this city. The report recommends a measure introduced in the last session of Congress known as the credit currency bill. The provisions of the proposed act were made known to the convention by A. B. Hepburn, of New York, chairman of the commission. The report was adopted and the commission was continued and its powers enlarged.

An attack upon the plan of the commission was made by a number of Western delegates, especially by A. J. Frame, of Michigan, who contended that the primary cause of money shortage in the United States was due to over speculation and that the credit currency plan pointed backward to eighteenth century fiatism. As an alternative he advocated a central reserve fund. He was supported in his views by a number of other members, to all of whom Congressman Charles N. Fowler, of New Jersey, chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, replied in a stirring speech. He declared that this country is the only one without some form of credit currency.

Chairman Hepburn, of the commission which prepared the credit currency report in presenting its findings to the convention, spoke at some length on the measure. When Mr. Hepburn finished, a motion was made to continue the currency commission, and immediately there was a protest from Delegate Yates, of Omaha. He said there was no public sentiment for the Hepburn bill.

The convention by a viva voce vote approved the Hepburn bill which favors credit currency.

FOURTEEN MEN DROWNED

Boat Crossing Tombigbee River Capsized in Shoals.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 26.—A ferry boat crossing the Tombigbee river at the government works at McGrews Shoals, near Jackson, Ala., late today was capsized, drowning one white boy and thirteen negroes. The boy was Leslie Vernuille, 16 years of age, residing in Oakdale, a suburb of this city. The scene of the accident has long been regarded as a very dangerous place by navigators of the river, on account of the rapid and treacherous current and the rocky shoals there.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 26.—Lawton Wilson, of Bainbridge, Georgia, and two negroes employed in the construction of a bridge over the Hombigbee river near Aliceville, Ala., were drowned yesterday while crossing the river in a skiff.

QUARRELSOME WIFE KILLED.

Aged Wealthy Citizen of Illinois Commits Suicide.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Elgin, Ills., Sept. 26.—Cyrus Baldwin, 85 years of age, one of the wealthiest residents of Kane county, Ill., killed himself today by eating paris green after he had confessed that he had murdered his aged wife by smashing her skull with a hammer. Mrs. Baldwin was found dead yesterday and it was believed that she had been murdered by her husband, although there was no direct proof of the fact. Today Baldwin confessed that he had killed his wife after a quarrel.

INDICTED FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

Southern Railway Trainmen Held for Wreck.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 26.—This afternoon the grand jury of Wake county found a true bill for manslaughter against Engineer W. R. Rippey, Conductor C. M. Oakley, Chief Train Dispatcher T. P. Ketcham, Train Dispatcher Victor Parvin, of the Durham division of the Southern Railway, for the deaths of three men killed in the head-on collision on the Southern Railway near Auburn the first of September, the allegation being failure to observe train orders and to send proper train orders.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 6.—The dry goods market holds generally steady with the demand showing no special increase. The action of Southern yarn spinners in declining to curtail production was disappointment to cotton yarns dealers. Yarns are weak and dull. Late reports from China promise no early resumption of the export trade. Menswear repeat orders are beginning to come in. Raw and retail trade did more in heavy Fall goods as a consequence of the cooler weather.

In the Federal court at Omaha last night the injunction asked for by Nebraska's railroads to prevent the enforcement of the law reducing grain rates was denied and the restraining order dissolved.

CUBAN UPRISING AMONG NEGROES

Three of Principal Conspirators Arrested and Plot Suppressed By Magoon.

IT MEANS RACE PROBLEM

Negroes Claim That They Have Not Been Treated Right Leaders of Last Revolutions Opposed to the New One.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 6.—Official word of the arrests of conspirators in Havana reached the War Department today in the following cablegram addressed by Governor Magoon to Acting Secretary Oliver:

"Information more specific and certain than heretofore received was secured late last night, that Maso Parra, angered by failure to bring about an uprising, threatened to dynamite some buildings in Havana and then escape. The local police arrested him and two of his gang named Lara Miret and Ducasse and they are now in jail."

War Department officials while admitting that agitation is rampant among the negro population in Cuba because of their failure to receive their proper share of the offices, discredit the probability of any uprising against the provisional government on that island. The negro population, composing 90 per cent. of the people who opposed the government, claim they have not been fairly treated. A continuation of this agitation, it is admitted, might have a serious effect in driving some of the malcontents to attempted uprsings in isolated places, but Governor Magoon is said to be prepared to nip in the bud anything like an insurrection. Acting Secretary of War Oliver was at the White House today but he did not regard the stories of the Cuban revolt sufficient importance to bring it to the President's attention.

Governor Magoon is keeping the Department advised of the situation and is consulting freely with General Barry and other military officers in command of the army of Cuban pacification. His dispatches for prudential reasons are not made public. The agitation has been alike in Havana and Pinar del Rio provinces—in the latter province being among the lawless class, mainly negroes. In a large measure the governor is disposed to treat the whole matter as not of any serious consequence, as the leaders of the last revolution are actively opposing the present agitation. Governor Magoon has reported that private and official advices from Santiago, Puerto Principe, Santa Clara and Mantanzas provinces indicate absolute transquility there.

General Barry today telegraphed from Havana:

"Referring to newspaper accounts of agitation in Cuba, have been alive to situation for some days though nothing has developed worthy of reporting. All intelligence officers and station commanders have been alert and have reported everything concerning it. Daily reports from them show tranquility in all provinces except Pinar del Rio where there is some slight agitation among lawless class, mainly negroes. Am satisfied any situation which may arise will be promptly and successfully handled."

Three Generals Arrested.

Havana, Sept. 26.—The secret police today arrested General Masso Parra, and a little later took into custody General Juam Ducassi and General Lara Miret, charged with conspiring against public order. The following statement was given out by Governor Magoon this evening:

"The governor issued a statement this afternoon in which he said, regarding the arrest of Masso Para, Juan Ducassi and Lara Miret, that he had been advised of their actions for some time past and has waited for them to carry out their work to some definite end. He was well aware of their conspiracy and deemed it advisable to put an end to the disturbance they were creating."

"To this the governor would add that Cuba has many important questions to occupy its attention for the next six or eight months, and it is desired that the minds of the people be not distracted from the important matters by agitators and disturbers of the peace and tranquility of the island. The men arrested appear to be the leaders and directors of this movement and although others are known to have participated in their meetings and to have promised men and arms for the movement it was not thought necessary to arrest these persons except in case of further developments. Their detention can be accomplished whenever desired. The governor believes that the punishment of those unfortunates whom they induced to believe in them will have the desired effect.

"The completion of the census for the coming elections and the continuance of the road building already inaugurated, as well as many other necessary public works, must be completed as soon as possible in order that when Cuba is turned over to its newly elected President the government will be in a fair working basis and free from the annoyances of petty would be military adventurers."

Every effort is being made tonight to ascertain the identity of the person who last night sent a news cablegram to a New York newspaper, as it is believed that this knowledge will be a valuable clue toward locating the Americans here who are interested in the movement. It appears that this cablegram was brought into the cable office by a negro and it is believed this man can be found. The source which the money for the revolution came is being sought diligently by secret service officials, who are confident that they can locate the firm which distributed the funds in Havana. The Havana press generally deprecates the movement, declaring it suicidal and unpatriotic. The Post in an editorial article declares the movement has no material importance as the conspirators although well supplied with money are unable to muster a corporal's guard from people of any standing, military and otherwise.

Nipped in Bud.

Havana, Sept. 26.—It was rumored here tonight that General Estanoz and General Acosta had taken to the field but the report could not be confirmed.

It is known that the leaders of the movement planned to start the revolution today at seven different points simultaneously. When General Miret was taken into custody he was in an automobile, and iti s alleged that he was preparing to leave for the locality assigned him. Members of the conservative party are greatly worked up over the arrest of General Ducassi, who has been declaring himself in sympathy with the party.

TRIAL OF ACK HALE.

Accused Murderer of Lillie Davis On Witness Stand.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Ack Hale, who is on trial at Blountville, for the murder of Lillie Davis, crime alleged to have been committed in East Hill Cemetery in this city last March, today took the stand in his own defense and gave substantially the same version of the tragedy as when first arrested a few minutes after the fatal shot was fired.

Hale made a sweeping denial of the charge of murder, and contradicted all the witnesses for the prosecution as to the events of the afternoon and evening on which the girl met her death. He testified that he had been intimate with his alleged victim, but officers were called in rebuttal who declared that he denied while under arrest that there had been any intimacy between them. In several other important particulars Hale's story was shaken upon cross-examination or by rebuttal evidence. His positive denial of having mistreated the girl at any time or in any way during the buggy drive preceeding her death when the evidence of a number of reputable witnesses shows that he treated her cruelly several times during the afternoon, produced a bad impression and evidently weakened his case.

Hale's version of the tragedy was that the girl committed suicide. He said that when they entered the cemetery she was in an intoxicated condition, and was begging him not to leave Bristol, declaring that if he did she would kill herself. He would not yield to her entreaties to remain in the city. They sought a grassy plot and sat down and before he could realize it she picked up his pistol, which was lying on the ground and sent a bullet into her breast.

A number of witnesses for the defense were placed on the stand today, but the result of their testimony was not largely to the advantage of the prisoner. One of them, a woman of questionable character from Knoxville, was impeached and the stories told by the others were of little value to the cause of the defense after the cross-examination.

The State rested its case at 9 o'clock this morning and when court adjourned this evening the defense had finished. It is expected that by noon tomorrow all the rebuttal testimony will have been taken and the argument will begin. The case will probably be argued during the afternoon and given to the jury in the evening, though it is doubtful if a verdict will be rendered before Saturday.

The little town of Blountville is filled with persons attracted thither by the trial. Many of the visitors are from Bristol, but most of them are from the country.

BISHOP OF LONDON PREACHES.

Spoke Plainly in New York About Boodling and Graft.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 26.—From the pulpit of historic Trinity Church in the heart of the country's great financial district, Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, Bishop of London, at noon today delivered the message:

"Life is a stewardship, not an ownership." A greater throng perhaps never sought admission to the edifice and when all who could be accommodated were within, hundreds lingered outside to catch a glimpse of the noted divine.

The bishop is evidently not a man who looks over his audience first and picks his words accordingly. Today he said: "I know not to whom I am preaching. I shall be as frank here as I am in London. No man who is really a Christian would soil his hands with one dollar, the possession of which he could not justify in the sight of Heaven."

The bishop presented the figure of an athletic man, tall and angular, with a deep resonant voice. His text was from the second verse of the 16th chapter of St. Luke:

"Render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward."

"The one thing," he said, "the one sentence, which above all others I would say to you, a sentence as yet unlearned in London and New York, and which if adopted, would cleanse the life on both sides of the Atlantic is—life is a stewardship and not an ownership. All the evils in the world are due to the neglect of the Christian principle that we are here only as custodians of what we have, be it wealth or anything else, founded on the fact that Christ died to redeem man and place him in fair standing. If city officials and government servants would live up to these thoughts there would be no boodling, no miscarriage of justice and no broken hearts."

Mrs. Carrie Nation, recently committed to the workhouse in Washington for refusal to pay a fine of $25 as a penalty for disorderly conduct, was released yesterday, her fine having been paid by a friend.

What's the Use of paying more for an article through prejudice, than you can buy for less, that's just as good?

Take Whiskey, for Instance.

We make but one charge—just for whiskey—that's all. When you pay more than we ask for our whiskey you are being taxed for something else besides the whiskey.

Now "WHAT'S THE USE" of you paying an excess to anybody for imaginary superiority—when we have the same goods, but are content through immense volumes of sales, to break even on profits—instead of "hikeing up" the price beyond the point of giving you value received.

"CHESTERFIELD" products are "AS GOOD AS THE BEST FOR LESS." That's the reason "CHESTERFIELD" Whiskies are popular.

"CHESTERFIELD NEVER DISAPPOINTS." Full quart $1.00. TRY IT.
